DISTRIBUTION

The official Copenhagen Pride Guide is a collaboration between Homotropolis and Copenhagen Pride. The magazine is available at all relevant LGBTQIA+ places in Copenhagen and Frederiksberg.

Dear Guest

Copenhagen Pride Week 2019 goes down from 13. - 18. August and we have worked really hard to put together a diverse and inclusive program containing both deadly serious as well as fun events. We have strived to make sure that you will feel represented in the many debates, workshops, concerts and more quirky activities that all make up the program of 2019.

This year we proudly present you with the biggest human rights program ever including several new venues and tracks and we have also worked to ensure that our debates and workshops will be safe spaces for everyone. A big thank you to our human rights team for all the voluntary hours they have spent to come up with this year's program.

Our show and concert team has also been working hard again this year. Their effort means that we can present artists such as Vivacious, Tina Dico (Tina Dickow), Robin Skouteris, Birthe Kjær and Lydmor alongside Swedish "allsång", queens, kings, the Salmon of the Year Award and so much more on Pride Stage.

Copenhagen City Hall Square will become Pride Square dressed up in rainbow colours as of Tuesday 13. August and until Saturday 17. August. We will open up Pride Square daily at noon and this year you can meet LGBT Danmark, Sabaah, Coca-Cola, Homoware, Wella, Copenhagen 2021, Cock's & Cows, 7-Eleven, AIDS Foundation, Barefoot Wine, Pan Idræt, Kafe Knud, FH (The Danish Trade Union Confederation) and several other partners who are present on Pride Square throughout Pride Week.

Copenhagen Pride continues growing and every year we outnumber the previous year when we get together under the rainbow. This makes us both proud and happy, and at the same time it is important because visibility is key in order to put focus on the lives and conditions of the LGBTQIA+ population.

Copenhagen Pride Week is still free to attend, and we believe it should remain so. A program as large as this one would therefore not be possible without our partners and sponsors who choose to support us financially or in other ways. That support is necessary and important, and we do hope you will pay attention to all the organisations, brands and companies who support the festival and the core values that Copenhagen Pride carries in its rainbow heart.

Another important thing is your direct support. By buying our official support collection including our wristband, pin and CPH Pride x Mads Nørgaard Wear or getting your beverages in our Copenhagen Pride bars you support us and help to enable the festival.

We look forward to seeing you for Copenhagen Pride Week 2019 and we hope you will find lots of interesting activities in the program that you will want to take part in.

Happy Pride and lots of love from

THE WORLDPRIDE BATON IS OURS

Copenhagen Pride took part in WorldPride 2019 in New York City and the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots. Besides marching in the WorldPride Parade the Danish delegation was also on stage during the closing ceremony to invite the massive crowd to Copenhagen and Malmö in 2021.

At the closing ceremony of WorldPride 2019 | Stonewall 50, a delegation from Copenhagen Pride took the stage to invite everyone to the next WorldPride, which will take place in Copenhagen and Malmö on August 12-22, 2021.

- WorldPride 2019 has been a magnificent celebration of the moment that sparked our movement 50 years ago. Now we hope you'll all join us in two years' time to write the next chapter in our movement's history, Lars Henriksen, chair of Copenhagen Pride, said from the stage.

Copenhagen Pride's chairperson, Lars Henriksen, accepts the WorldPride baton on stage.

The inaugural WorldPride was held in Rome in 2000 in an effort from InterPride, the international association of pride organizers and licensor of WorldPride, to gather and celebrate the international LGBTQ+ community and promote LGBTQ+ issues internationally. The event has since then been hosted in cities such as London, Toronto and Madrid.

- Now the baton has been passed on to Copenhagen and Malmö. Our two countries have a proud history of championing equality and standing up for our community, says Lars Henriksen. – WorldPride 2021 will continue this proud tradition of blazing the trail by shining a light on the barriers that LGBTQ+ people still face around the world.

The organizing team behind WorldPride 2021 promises an 11-days pride festival consisting of hundreds of events such as open-air concerts, art exhibitions, movie screenings, and parties – most of the events expected to be free of charge. The organizers also plan for an international conference and an open-for-all democracy festival to raise awareness on LGBTQ+ rights around the world. In addition to all this, the LGBTQ+ sporting event EuroGames is planned to coincide with WorldPride 2021.

- We will seek to leverage WorldPride as a platform to raise awareness among the public, educate our own community, elevate LGBTQ+ issues around the world, and amplify the voices of activists, says Lars Henriksen. – And we will do so by putting inclusivity front and centre. We strive to make sure that everyone, whomever they love or however they identify, will feel included.

The organizers expect approx. 750,000 guests for WorldPride and EuroGames in Copenhagen and Malmö. It is the first time ever that the two events are celebrated in parallel and in two cities, and the combined event has been named Copenhagen 2021.

RAINBOW ART THROUGHOUT PRIDE WEEK

Recent years have seen several museums and galleries dress up in rainbow colours on the occasion of Copenhagen Pride Week, and this year is no exception. More specific events such as the queer night in Glyptoteket can be found on the program pages, but both the National Gallery of Denmark, Copenhagen Contemporary and even Saint Stephen's Church in Nørrebro invite you in for special exhibitions all through Pride Week.

There I Belong

Artist duo Elmgreen & Dragset challenge our habitual ideas about 'home' with the exhibition There I belong in the National Gallery of Denmark. The masterpieces of Danish painter Vilhelm Hammershøi are presented in unconventional company, juxtaposed with international contemporary art.

Hammershøi is famously known for his iconic scenes of semi-empty rooms, and Elmgreen & Dragset will peek through the windows into the perfect bourgeois homes where despair and misery can often hide behind the glossy surfaces.

Alongside own works by Elmgreen & Dragset are artists such as Louise Bourgeois, Monica Bonvicini, Thomas Ruff, Francesca Woodman and Njideka Akunyili Crosby.

Where: National Gallery of Denmark, Sølvgade 48-50, 1307 Copenhagen

When: Tuesday - Sunday in Pride Week from 10:00 - 18:00 (Wednesday until 20:00).

Vilhelm Hammershøi, Interior in Strandgade, Sunlight on the Floor, 1901.

Queer art in St. Stephen's Church

The young nomadic gallery- and exhibition platform Slowroom Contemporary has in collaboration with Stefanskirken (St. Stephen's Church) in Nørrebro invited a string of contemporary queer artists to participate in the exhibition UNDER THE ANTI LIES THE BODY which will run during the Copenhagen Pride Week.

The exhibition presents a string of contemporary queer artists whom in their own work explores the physical body in context of personal relations, desire and the social and political climate on queer matters. The exhibition will be located in the heart of what may be considered one of the largest institutions of the world - the church. With the presence of the artistic voices in the church hall of St. Stephen's Church, the art becomes larger than merely artistic practices, but witnesses to the political debate from within. In the midst of this noise, the work journeys into the question of whether there is a place for queer people in the holy church hall. And if there is, where in the church are these seats located?

Among the exhibiting artists are German photographer Florian Hetz and Danish photographer Birk Thomassen.

Where: Stefanskirken (St. Stephen's Church), Nørrebrogade 191, 2200 Copenhagen

When: Tuesday - Sunday in Pride Week from 10:00 - 16:00

Wu Tsang, Into A Space Of Love (2018)

Diversity is reality

Copenhagen Contemporary at Refshaleøen presents the American filmmaker and visual artist Wu Tsang in the exhibition Diversity is Reality.

In Tsang's essay-film 'Into a Space of Love' from 2018, queer, transgender and house music personalities talk about how they relate to house culture and music. The film examines how house music, like so many other movements, was created by communities of queer, brown, and black people and then appropriated by mainstream white cultures.

The exhibition also includes the film Shape of a Right Statement from 2008, and both movies address vital aspects of Wu Tsang's work, including the politics of visibility and appropriation – who speaks for whom; the ephemerality of community; and performances as modes of resistance.

Where: Copenhagen Contemporary,
Refshalevej 173A, 1432 Copenhagen

When: Tuesday - Sunday in Pride Week from 11:00 - 18:00 (Thursday until 21:00).

+80 events about human rights

We are proud to present to you our biggest human rights program ever during Copenhagen Pride Week 2019. We have done our best to put together a diverse and interesting program with a large number of both national and international activists, artists, debaters, teachers and keynote speakers. It is our hope that the program will contribute to a more nuanced insight and wider perspectives on gender, bodies, sexualities and norms.

We are continuously working to improve representation, diversity and inclusion in our program and among our participants. As always our focus is the rights and well-being of the rainbow community.

This year we have further expanded the program with more cultural events taking place at their very own venue at Huset-KBH in Rådhusstræde which will function as a Pride Culture House throughout the week. Every morning there will be good morning songs and every afternoon friendship dating takes place.

It is important that all of us experience a nice Pride Week and take care of one another in the best ways possible. Thankfully this is something we are already very good at, but still we would like to draw your attention to our ground rules for joining any human rights event on page 17.

BSP = Body- and sex-positivity

Again this year we have what we refer to as a BSP track (BSP meaning body- and sex-positivity), and this is the part of the program which centers around more sensitive and private subjects such as sexuality, sexual identity, the body and gender identity and all the experiences that go with that. Our BSP content is presented through workshops, debates, presentations and salons, and needless to say these activities can include very specific details about gender, bodies and sexual experiences. These kind of experiences can be sensitive for any individual to discuss and therefore need a more private atmosphere. This is why the format of our BSP events differ from the rest.

First and foremost all BSP events are safer space events and take place behind closed doors with no filming or photographing allowed. Unless otherwise stated all genders and sexualities are welcome. Lastly the following two specific BSP rules are to be respected:

Doors close when the event begins

To avoid interruptions it will not be possible to arrive late for BSP events.

What happens in the room - stays in the room!

Respect the discretion of all participants and do not discuss the event or mention personal information obtained from the event with people who were not present.

Breaking our rules can lead to expulsion. But enough with rules and regulations for now. Luckily we know from experience that the large majority of participants understand how to behave and know how to act in mutual respect and practice inclusivity.

We hope you will like our human rights program and we hope to examine and explore beyond the beaten path when it comes to LGBTQIA+ lives and activism. Bring a friend - or come by yourself. Meet new people, stay curious and open-minded. Together we are so much better.

See you during Copenhagen Pride Week.

GROUND RULES

FOR PARTICIPATING IN OUR HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVITIES

- No phobias and no shaming! This also includes homophobia, biphobia, transphobia, queerphobia, racism, ableism, sizeism and shaming of any sexual behaviour
- Avoid assuming anything about somebody's gender, body or sexuality
- Respect people's names and pronouns. In doubt - ask!
- No staring and no indiscretions
- If asked to avoid certain words or terms - do respect that!
- Remain conscious of your own privilege and position
- Do not question lived experiences
- Be open-minded, inclusive and respectful

QUIET ZONE

Do you feel like taking a break from all the noise, enjoy a little silence or maybe have a conversation in safe and quiet surroundings?

Our Quiet Zone is a get-away from the hustle and bustle where you can find peace and quiet in the midst of all the Pride celebrations. The zone is placed in a larger lounge-ish room with the possibility of settling down in a more secluded part. A coordinator will be present at all times to enforce the rules of a safe space if necessary. Everyone is welcome.

The Quiet Zone
can be found at DIS,
Frederiksberggade 24,
1459 Copenhagen.

Malaco celebrates all kinds of families.

We wish everyone a very colourful Pride.

Malaco is proud to be an official Copenhagen Pride sponsor in 2019. All kinds of families are unique and none are alike. In Denmark, we currently have 37 different family units, and this diversity, community and sexual freedom is important to Malaco. Malaco's Family Guf celebrates diversity and all families with five lovely bag designs for the many ways of being a family in Denmark.

DANISH SCHLAGER QUEEN

TO OPEN PRIDE WEEK

The whole town is bound to be painted red, yellow, orange, green, blue and purple when the legendary Danish Schlager queen Birthe Kjær plays on Pride Stage with her Feel Good Band on the opening night of Copenhagen Pride Week 2019

Since 1968 when the instant hit Arrivederci Franz meant the breakthrough for then 20-year old Birthe Kjær, the singer's popularity has only risen as the number one hits kept on coming. Besides Arrivederci Franz, immortal danish golden oldies such as Vi maler byen rød (We are painting the town red), Tennessee Waltz and Pas på den knaldrøde gummibåd (Beware of the bright red rubber boat) have made Birthe Kjær a household name and quite the national treasure among both younger and older Danes.

Birthe Kjær has been a contestant in the national selections for Eurovision Song Contest no less than 5 times, and in 1989 she won and was representing Denmark at the Eurovision

Song Contest held in Switzerland where she came in third just after Yugoslavia and United Kingdom.

Despite many years of experience in the music industry, Birthe Kjær gets some sort of debut when she takes the stage on the City Hall Square on Tuesday 13. August at 19:45. This will be the very first time for the now 70-year old singer to perform during Copenhagen Pride Week, and alongside her Feel Good Band, Birthe Kjær will deliver an hourlong concert revisiting all the classics and golden oldies that the (Danish) audience will definitely know very well and sing along to.

TINA DICO

UNDER THE RAINBOW

Thursday night on Pride Stage is all about spectacular live music with a lineup of both up-and-coming as well as more established artists performing live on stage for Under the Rainbow, serving amazing music in every colour of the rainbow. Headlining this year's Under the Rainbow is one of Denmark's best singer-songwriters Tina Dickow (known outside of Denmark as Tina Dico).

With the release of no less than 11 albums within the last 14 years, the 41-year old Danish singer-songwriter Tina Dico got her commercial breakthrough with the album In the Red from 2005 which gave us timeless hits such as Nobody's Man and Warm Sand. In 2006 she was awarded Best Female Singer at the Danish Music Awards and since then she has received numerous awards including the Crown Prince Couple's Culture Prize as well as a handful of GAFFA awards.

Tina Dico has been showered with critical acclaim throughout her career, both for her live concerts as well as her studio albums, and her latest album from 2018, Fastland, was no exception. Danish newspaper Politiken called it an "energetic, extrovert pleasure" while the online music magazine GAFFA described it as being "in a league of its own".

Tina Dico (or Tina Dickow as Danes know her by) will go on Pride Stage with her band for a full concert on Thursday at 21:00, immediately after live performances by Lydmor, X Factor winner Kristian Kjærlund and Neigh. This year's host for Under the Rainbow will be transgender model and actress May Simón Lifschitz.

For those who might not know her yet, or those who are in need of a Tina Dico revisit we have selected 10 songs that we believe you need to hear. This, of course, includes The Woman Downstairs which is a declaration of love to another woman.

10 TINA DICO MUST HEARS

- Nobody's Man
- You Wanna Teach Me To Dance
- The Woman Downstairs
- Open Wide
- Warm Sand
- Room With a View
- In the Red
- Fancy
- Someone You Love
- On the Run

Tina Dico is headlining Under the Rainbow
2019 at Pride Stage on 15 August at 21:00

MOTHER HAS ARRIVED!

The hugely popular Drag Night goes down on Friday night during Pride Week and this year Copenhagen Pride guests will be honoured with the presence of a real living legend known from RuPaul's Drag Race season 6. Yes, you guessed it. Mother has arrived. Vivacious is this year's international super queen on Pride Stage.

Drag Night 2019 has searched through New York for a headlining queen and brought Vivacious from RuPaul's Drag Race season 6 to Copenhagen. Known for her out of the ordinary headpiece named Ornacia and her entrance quote Mother has arrived, it is an experienced queen who will sashay on to Pride Stage on Friday August 16 to share the catwalk with more than 20 other both queens and kings who are in the show this year.

The now 45-year old Jamaican drag queen was one of the original New York City club kids back in the 90s and while she only got to be on 3 episodes of RuPaul's Drag Race before being eliminated after losing the lip sync battle to April Carrión, she was never forgotten by her fans and the many Drag Race viewers.

And now she will be here in Copenhagen to receive a warm and really loud welcome on the City Hall Square for Drag Night 2019.

Again this year Drag Night will be steered with loose wrists and bitchy comments by hostess Megan Moore, and the audience can also look forward to seeing drag kings on stage this year - and of course an extravagant selection of the biggest and best Danish drag queens.

THESE WILL ALSO BE ON STAGE

Besides the main draws this year, you can also experience these (and many other) magnificent artists, activists and personalities during Copenhagen Pride Week.

Sara Bro

Our Pride Show host this year is tv and radio host Sara Bro who currently has her own talkshow on DR2 and is also a familiar voice from radio channel P3. She has been hosting numerous tv shows in the past and published her book The diary of Sara Bro in 2004, which dealt with her being diagnosed with breast cancer.

01. Lydmor

Electronic pop sensation and singer Jenny Rossander, known by her artist name Lydmor, has returned to Denmark after touring both Asia and Europe. On Thursday evening she performs for Under the Rainbow and you can expect mesmerizing, storytelling electropop and a fabulous show which transcends both formalities and norms.

Jonas Hedqvist

Swedish Jonas Hedqvist is back on Pride Stage Wednesday night where he will be hosting From Sweden With Love. Expect the best of everything from the other side of the Øresund Bridge including allsång (traditional Swedish sing-along), Swedish-themed bingo and the best and biggest Swedish pop and Eurovision songs.

02. Zayn Phallic

British Drag King Zayn Phallic will be on stage Friday night when Drag Night 2019 makes the catwalk tremble underneath the weight of both kings and queens. Zayn is the founder of the KOC initiative (Kings of Colour) which works to ensure more diversity and a better representation within the world of drag.

03. O/RIOH

Danish queer artist and producer O/RIOH accelerates the lesbian revolution in Denmark and consistently challenges the patriarchal structures and norms in the music industry as well as in society. On Saturday at 17:00 she is the opening act of this year's Pride Show.

04. May Simón Lifschitz

Our host for Under the Rainbow on Thursday evening is model and actress May Simón Lifschitz who is half Danish and half Argentine. In 2015 she became the first transgender model to be on the cover of a Danish fashion magazine.

05

Megan Moore

Once again your Drag Night hostess will be Megan Moore which is like a guarantee that the show will be anything but dull. Since Megan Moore had her drag debut at 16 years of age her career took off making her one of Denmark's best and most entertaining queens.

05 Kristian Kjærlund

The winner of Danish X Factor 2019 and a bright synth and indiepop talent who can't wait to be the opening act for Under the Rainbow on Thursday at 18:30. The 23-year old Kristian Kjærlund has worked constantly since X Factor to further refine his skills and the result will be all ours to enjoy during Pride Week.

01

04

06. Robin Skouteris

DJ Robin Skouteris is back and we are delighted that he will once again be the closing act on Saturday night. If you have experienced Robin Skouteris during previous Pride Weeks you will know that his unique mix of music and visuals is the perfect combo for a hot Summer party on Pride Square. Expect a pop explosion!

07. Neigh

24-year old Patrick Slivsgaard Christensen, known by his artist name Neigh, is a true do it yourself kind of person who makes uncompromising music that opens up to the heart. Expect mesmerizing vocals and love songs that are both universal as well as dealing with themes such as being young and gay. Neigh goes on stage Thursday night at 20:00.

06

08. Lydia

Despite her young age 17-year old Lydia was recently signed to Universal Music. Her talent with the piano is remarkable and she herself has dreamed of playing at Copenhagen Pride. Her best friend is transgender and since kindergarten they have stuck together through thick and thin and good and bad. Now Lydia's wish is coming true, and you can see her perform live on stage on Saturday at 17:25.

07

09. Rebecca Lou

With songs such as *B*tch U Look Good* and I Wanna Be Your Everything Rebecca Lou has kicked ass both in the music industry and in the national gender debate. After a rough childhood in the islands of Lolland-Falster and the feeling of being an outsider, self-damage and body-shaming influenced her teenage years, Rebecca Lou has made it her calling to be open and honest about her experiences and inspire others to come out on the other side. The seriously asskicking and yet vulnerable musician can be experienced on Pride Stage on Saturday at 19:40.

FEEL LIKE ADDING LGBTQIA+ LIVES AND STORIES TO THE CULTURAL AGENDA ALL THROUGH THE YEAR?

Then you just might be one of the volunteers we are looking for to join our new culture team.

About you:

- You are eager to start more LGBTQIA+ conversations in the cultural area all year round.
- You have some experience with cultural events and a creative network
- You feel like being part of the organisation Copenhagen Pride
- You possess a norm critical, feminist and intersectional approach to communication
- You are able to attend the monthly team meeting during a weekend and you can join us during Winter Pride Week and Copenhagen Pride Week.

If you recognise yourself in the above then we would love to hear from you. Write to our cultural coordinator Charlotte on kultur@copenhagenpride.dk and include some words about you and your motivation for joining us. You are also welcome to include some examples of cultural cooperations and initiatives that you feel Copenhagen Pride ought to work towards.

We welcome your application without regard to race, color, age, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, disability or national origin etc.

Deadline: August 30, 2019.

Copenhagen Pride makes activities and events for the LGBTQIA+ community and actively take part in relevant contexts that help to ensure visibility, understanding and tangible results.

Our vision is to create a world where everyone can love and live freely and in safety.

Copenhagen Pride is a listening and norm-critical organisation with inclusion as a core value. We are politically active and strive to influence both public opinion and debate. Our flagship is the annual Copenhagen Pride Week in August which is a celebration of the LGBTQIA+ community in the shape of a human rights festival with safe spaces and an environment where people are free to express themselves. Copenhagen Pride are politically independent and not affiliated with any political party.

GET READY

FOR COPENHAGEN 2021

Copenhagen 2021 is the world's first co-celebration of WorldPride and EuroGames. This global mega-event is expected to draw upwards of 750,000 guests over the course of August 12-22, 2021.

Keep reading to learn more about some the things taking place.

March for equality!

At the massive WorldPride march, you can join tens of thousands of marchers from all over the world to show your support for love, inclusivity and equal rights. We expect more than half a million spectators to cheer from the sidelines as the 50,000 marchers make their way through the city.

Come together at Copenhagen 2021 Square

The Copenhagen City Hall Square will be transformed into a rainbow-colored epicenter of top-notch stage performances – all free of charge and open to everyone. With several nights of shows, we will showcase the best of Danish performing artists, feature the crème de la crème of LGBTQ icons and superstars, and host the biggest drag show in all of Europe! Pride Square will bring all guests together to honor LGBTQ history and culture smack in the middle of our city.

Break a sweat at EuroGames

On August 18-21, Pan Idræt will host the LGBTQ-inclusive sporting event EuroGames with 5,000 athletes estimated to attend. The event will feature more than 25 disciplines, so there's a good chance you can break a sweat doing your favorite sport. Furthermore, there will be games for beginners and pros alike, and the organizers are looking at ways to ensure that the games are inclusive of trans, non-binary and intersex folks.

If you're the artsy type

In the many museums of Copenhagen, you can explore queer art that challenges our ideas of sexuality and gender and tell the story of our community's fight for equality. Some of this art will be exhibited outside and around town to invite by-passers to reflect on our community's impact over the years.

It takes a village ...

... to make sure everyone is included. That's why we want several pride villages to pop up all over town, each of them catering to a specific part of our community. We want to establish a village that focuses on women, one for LGBTQ youth, one for rainbow families and several others. We know that gay men often dominate pride celebrations, and we want to make sure that all parts of our community can go somewhere to meet like-minded people.

Set the agenda

In addition to all the fun and games of Copenhagen 2021, we're also hosting an international conference focusing on LGBTQ rights around the world. Policy and decision-makers, researchers, activists, thought leaders and philanthropists will gather in Copenhagen to discuss the future of our movement and how to push our agenda of equality forward.

Get educated

The conference may take place behind closed doors, but its themes and messages will come to life at our open-for-all democracy festival, featuring hundreds of talks, workshops, panels and debates. This festival will be brimming with clever points, bright minds and lively discussions to raise awareness on LGBTQ rights and the barriers our community still face here at home and abroad.

Run your first 5K – or something else

If you think participating at EuroGames might be a little too much for you, there's still plenty of opportunities to get moving. Throughout Copenhagen 2021, there will be several pop-up leisure and sporting events that are open for everyone. Join us for yoga by the harbor, a 5K Pride Run, roller disco in the city's streets, dodgeball in urban ball cages and many other events.

Party like there's no tomorrow

On every night of Copenhagen 2021, we'll host an official signature party so that when Copenhagen 2021 Square closes down in the evening, there's always somewhere to go for those who want to party just a little longer. We will educate staff and volunteers at the party venues to make sure that these parties are safe spaces and free from any form of discrimination.

WorldPride is hosted by Copenhagen Pride and licensed by InterPride. EuroGames is hosted by Pan Idræt and licensed by EGLSF. Both events are co-celebrated as Copenhagen 2021 in the cities of Copenhagen and Malmö on August 12-22, 2021.

HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRAM

13:30 - 13:45

OPENING SPEECH FOR THE HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRAM

Opening of this year's human rights program by Copenhagen Pride.

Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

14:00 - 14:45

MORE SEX = MORE HAPPINESS?

Our culture often assumes that sex is a prerequisite for a happy life and that the more sex you have, the happier you are. In the Asexuals Association Denmark, we know that the intertwining of sex and happiness can make life difficult if your sex drive doesn't match the norm. We will discuss 'more sex = more happiness' among people with different sexual orientations. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

14:00 - 14:45

HUMAN RIGHTS THROUGH DATA

Human rights are protected by means of conventions and the associated instruments such as courts and committees. These instruments generate an overwhelming amount of recommendations and critical remarks in regard to the participating nations. This is central to the formalised conversation on human rights. It may seem a resort for paper tigers - can they be tamed? Language: English.

Location: Mamma's, Regnbuepladsen 3-5, 1550 Copenhagen

15:00 - 15:45

WHEN MEN FEEL ASHAMED

Many young people experience feeling wrong in the eyes of others if their sexuality or gender identity looks different from others', and sometimes, this shame becomes a part of their life. Shame hurts the individual as well as relations between people. In this panel, we will talk about this shame in the context of men who have sex with men. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

15:00 - 15:45

FACEBOOK GROUPS: SOCIALISING AND LONELINESS

Loneliness is a big problem for many rainbow persons, but with the advance of social media, a range of groups for rainbow people have emerged. We have invited some of the groups' creators for a talk about how online communities can create important social spaces and how we can use these spaces. Language: Danish.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

15:00 - 15:45

CBS LGBTQIA+ THESIS SALOON

This is a combined presentation and debate format where CBS students present projects/theses that contribute with insights into the topic of LGBTQIA+. The diverse and critical insights that the students bring to the table in projects and theses outline and challenge the normative societal structures and propose innovative solutions and ideas for LGBTQIA+ issues at hand. Language: English.

Location: Mamma's, Regnbuepladsen 3-5, 1550 Copenhagen

16:00 - 16:45

THE STORY ABOUT THE RACIALIZED

Ethnic minorities are often talked about and the conversations can often be rooted in prejudices. Using the voices of the racialized, we will talk about their stories and how they influence debates, activism and politics.

Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

16:00 - 16:45

HOW DO WE ACT NOW TO END AIDS?

With the Sustainable Development Goals, the world has committed to end AIDS. It's time to act now! UNAIDS estimates that 37 million people are living with HIV, the highest number ever, and stigma and discrimination continue to keep people from accessing vital health care services. The debate will try to answer the question 'What do we need to do to end AIDS?'

Language: English.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

17:00 - 17:30

FRIENDSHIP DATING

Are you looking for new acquaintances and potential friends in the LGBTQ community? Then join Friendship Dating in Huset's courtyard where we will facilitate different conversations to give you the opportunity to expand your network. Who knows? Maybe you'll meet people you can relate to or who can expand your horizons. Language: English.

Location: Huset-KBH (the courtyard), Rådhusstræde 13, 1466 Copenhagen

17:00 - 17:45

DRAGS IN PRIDE

The Pride Movement was founded following the Stonewall Riots, where trans people and drag queens were a central driving force for the movement. In Denmark, the Gay Liberation Front were known for playing with gender expressions. Have we become too normative? Members of the local drag community will discuss why drag is more than lip syncs and high heels and why we need drag in Pride. Language: English.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

17:00 - 17:45

NORM CRITICISM FOR GROWN UPS

We have been focused on norm criticism for children and young people, but how are we as adults dealing with it? This presentation is a short introduction to a norm critical discourse and will examine how norms regarding gender, sexuality and positions of minority can have a negative categorising effect on the way people approach others. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

17:00 - 18:30

WORKSHOP: HOW DO WE TALK TO EACH OTHER?

We're inviting you to a workshop about language and conversation. How do we debate, how do we call each other out, and how do we support each other? At many debates, ideas arise of how we evolve, support each other and improve representation. Let's write these ideas down.

Language: Danish.

Location: DIS, Frederiksberggade 24, 1459 Copenhagen

17:00 - 18:30

ANAL SEX 101

Curious about anal sex? Do you want to learn how about anal stimulation and pleasure? At this workshop about anal sex, you will be guided through everything from how to get started, over the best techniques for rinsing and why lube is so important to what toys you can use. The workshop is open for everyone regardless of gender. Language: Danish.

Location: DIS, Frederiksberggade 24, 1459 Copenhagen

17:00 - 18:30

BDSM: SEX, CONSENT AND BOUNDARIES

To safely practice BDSM, you must have a trusting relationship and a good foundation. At this presentation, we will talk about boundaries and desires, and about the importance of communication in order to achieve a common understanding and a safe, positive experience.

Language: Danish.

Location: DIS, Frederiksberggade 24, 1459 Copenhagen

18:00 - 18:45

FAMILY FIRST

At this debate, three brave parents with different histories, approaches and perspectives will take the stage to discuss challenges and struggles. Sabaah wants to open this conversation to get an insight into their thoughts and considerations on the journey they've been on while embracing their children. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

18:00 - 18:45

NORM CRITICISM FOR CHILDREN

What does 'norm critical pedagogy' <dettes kaldes ogsaa 'anti-oppressive pedagogy', men det er vist et mere akademisk udtryk, saa det er maaske bedre at holde sig til norm criticism?> mean? What are the arguments in favour of being norm critical in your pedagogical work and in raising your children? How can you practically work norm critically with children and young people? How do Danish and international regulations support norm critical perspectives? And why is there so much resistance against these perspectives? Language: Danish.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

18:00 - 20:30

PRIDE TABLE TALK

How do we perceive gender in 2019? How do gender norms impact your everyday life? In this Table Talk, we unite different perspectives on gender and explore the experiences and thoughts of participants. The evening will guide us through questions and facilitate conversations related to the topic while sharing a simple meal in the cosy alley of Huset. Ticket information can be found on Facebook. Food is included in the price.

Language: English.

Location: Huset-KBH (Brændevinsgården), Rådhusstræde 13, 1466 Copenhagen

19:00 - 19:45

DRAG FOR BEGINNERS

We're inviting you to the workshop 'Drag for beginners'. Would you like to be transformed into a drag queen or drag king? Join us and meet some of Copenhagen's popular drag queens and kings and learn about everything from tucking, contouring and makeup for queens to binders, packing and makeup for kings. Language: English.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

Language: Danish.

Location: DIS, Frederiksberggade 24, 1459 Copenhagen

19:00 - 20:00

LATE BLOOMING

"I've lived two lives. One as a husband and father, and another where I could be myself in glimpses." As a young man, Jørgen falls in love with another man, but the fear of exclusion makes him marry a woman. He is 80 years old when he comes out. Now he's 95 and tells us about his life. A sound story about denial, love and liberation. Limited number of seats – first come first served. Language: Danish.

Location: Huset-KBH (the cinema), Rådhusstræde 13, 1466 Copenhagen

19:00 - 20:30

TRANS/NON-BINARY CONVERSATION SALON

This conversation salon will focus on being trans or non-binary. A panel will share their own stories, and the audience are encouraged to ask questions, share experiences and put into words the thoughts you might have when you're trans/non-binary. It may be about health, taboos, shame, prejudices or experiences with erasure. It will be possible to ask questions anonymously in writing. Language: Danish.

Location: DIS, Frederiksberggade 24, 1459 Copenhagen

19:00 - 20:30

TANTRA WORKSHOP

At this workshop, we will focus on bodily awareness. A short theoretical introduction will be followed by exercises and body awareness games with a focus on closeness, touch and massage. We will focus on listening to our own body, daring to explore it, setting boundaries and expressing wishes and desires. All LGBTQ persons are welcome. Language: Danish.

Location: DIS, Frederiksberggade 24, 1459 Copenhagen

HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRAM

14:00 - 14:45

POLICE AND HATE CRIMES

Hate crimes are a particular form of crime. We will start from the procedures that police work under when dealing with hate crimes, as well as the lack of standardisation of these procedures across districts, and we will discuss the challenges faced and their possible solutions. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

14:00 - 14:45

A SURROGATE OPENS UP

With surrogacy, the biggest objections seem to stem from the fear that either the pregnant woman is forced to do it, or that she'll regret it. Hear a surrogate talk about her experiences. Language: Danish.

Location: Mamma's, Regnbuepladsen 3-5, 1550 Copenhagen

14:00 - 14:45

LGBTI+ INCLUSIVE ELDERCARE

Older LGBTI+ people often face specific challenges, but staff working in home care and residential homes are usually not instructed in LGBTI+ persons' special needs. Which role do the educational institutions, health care professionals, municipalities, and politicians play in securing LGBTI+ friendly eldercare? Language: English.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

15:00 - 15:45

PRIDE: COMMERCIAL BILLBOARD OR PASSION PROJECT?

More and more businesses and political parties are flying rainbow flags. But are they supporting Pride for the right reasons, and will they remember that LGBTQ issues are still important after the end of the week? Meet Senior Vice President of Corporate Strategy and Stakeholder Relations at Ørsted Jakob Askou Bøss and the Social Democratic Party's Vice Chairperson Mogens Jensen for a talk about 'LGBTQ washing' and why diversity and inclusivity are important. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

15:00 - 15:45

GENDER-NEUTRAL TRAFFIC LIGHTS AND OTHER MISUNDERSTANDINGS

Earlier this year, a fierce debate about gender-neutral traffic lights hit the media. But do non-binary people actually want gender neutral traffic lights? What kind of challenges does this group of people face, and what does it really mean to be non-binary? We'll be talking to the people who the traffic light debacle was about, but who were never heard.

Language: Danish.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

15:00 - 15:45

WOMEN ONLY COMMUNITIES

We've previously had discussions about how and why women are under-represented in most LGBTQ communities and groups and how this can be changed. This year, we're inviting you to a conversation about what women only communities and women only spaces can do and why they are necessary. Language: Danish.

Location: Mamma's, Regnbuepladsen 3-5, 1550 Copenhagen

16:00 - 16:45

MINORITY IN THE MINORITY: LGBTQ WITH HEARING IMPAIRMENT

All rainbow people should be part of the conversation when it concerns our community, but is it always accessible for everyone? How do rainbow persons with hearing impairments experience accessibility, and what other challenges does this group face? We'll turn the issue on its head and let the panel discuss in sign language while a sign-to-speech interpreter will interpret for the audience. Language: In sign language and Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

16:00 - 16:45

SOLIDARITY IN THE COMMUNITY

What is solidarity? Who shows solidarity with whom? When are we not solidary enough? We have invited a panel of guests to discuss how they experience solidarity in the LGBTQ community. This year, we'll focus on people with functional impairments. Language: Danish.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

17:00 - 17:30

FRIENDSHIP DATING

Are you looking for new acquaintances and potential friends in the LGBTQ community? Then join Friendship Dating in Huset's courtyard where we will facilitate different conversations to give you the opportunity to expand your network. Who knows? Maybe you'll meet people you can relate to or who can expand your horizons.

17:00 - 17:45

INCLUSIVITY AND DIVERSITY IN SPORT

With a panel of athletes and sport leaders, we will look at how we can embrace diversity and create more inclusive spaces for LGBTQ people. We will talk about safety to be open about who you are, changing rooms and coaches and leaders' need for further training or courses in inclusive communities. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

17:00 - 17:45

BROWN AND QUEER ON TV - WHERE ARE WE?

During the last year, we've seen more minority ethnic actors in Danish TV series, but where are the brown queers? What does representation mean when it comes to changing opinions in society and what potential does the media hold? What does it mean to tell the minority ethnic LGBT+ story in Danish (pop) culture. Language: Danish.

SAFE SPACE - SAFE SEX

Often, we are only taught about protection for penetrative sex, and it is hard to know where to find information about safe sex for other sexual activities. We will talk about what safe sex means; consent, safety, communication, protection, hygiene etc. There are many forms of protection that are not taught and we want to change that from a norm critical perspective. Language: Danish.

Location: DIS, Frederiksberggade 24, 1459 Copenhagen

17:00 - 18:30

SEX-SHAMING

Many of us have experienced it, but why does sex shaming exist? Our panel looks closer at what kinds of sex shaming people experience, what it is like to experience it and what we can do to stop it. The panel will share their own experiences and the audience are welcome to contribute. Language: Danish.

Location: DIS, Frederiksberggade 24, 1459 Copenhagen

18:00 - 18:45A HAPPY DONOR CHILD

Can you be happy if you're a child of an anonymous donor? That's a question that donor child Emma Grønabæk is often asked. Hear Emma's story and her experience that it is often viewed as taboo to be a happy donor child. You will also meet Liza Diers who lives in a rainbow family with three donor children. What is it like to be a rainbow family and what questions is she asked most often? Language: Danish.

*Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square18:00 - 18:45*CKI AND TRANSGENDER

CKI (Centre for Gender identity) are happy to treat non-binary persons as long as they fit into a binary understanding of gender. We will shed light on non-binary individuals' experiences with CKI, what kind of treatment they would like and how it doesn't fit into CKI's standards and boxes. We discuss possible solutions that can ensure a better experience with the system for non-binary people. Language: Danish.

*Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall19:00 - 19:45*QUEER THEOLOGY IN CONVERSATION WITH FEMINISM

Three women who work with feminism and sexuality in their own ways will discuss gender and body and how belief always relates to the reality in which it exists. This conversation will look at art and suggest other ways to understand Christianity than what conservative Christianity presents. Language: Danish.

*Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square19:00 - 20:30*WOMAN-TO-WOMAN CONVERSATION SALON

At this conversation salon, we focus on what it means to be a woman who loves women. The panel will share their own stories and the audience are invited to ask questions, share their experiences and put into words the thoughts you might have if you're a woman who likes women. It might be about health, taboo, shame, prejudices and experiences of erasure. It will be possible to ask anonymous questions in writing. Language: Danish.

PRIDE STAGE

19:00 - 23:00

FROM SWEDEN WITH LOVE

From Sweden With Love is a spectacular and interactive evening hosted by Jonas Hedqvist, where we celebrate the best of Swedish music as we party the night away for a great and important cause. Your host will be Jonas Hedqvist.

The event starts off as a fun-filled Swedish "förfest" (preparty). Bring your favorite bff's when we turn Pride Square into a giant living room where you can join in on some traditional Swedish sing-a-long (allsång), Swedish-themed bingo and test your Swedish music knowledge in our entertaining music quiz with live performances, where you can win anything from a song to a can of "surströmming". Expect lots of Swedish Eurovision music, ranging from Abba and Carola to Loreen and Måns during this part of the show.

The preparty leads up to the main show and takes us from Swedish Eurovision hits to celebrating Swedish export pop successes such as Robyn, Avicii and Roxette as we turn Pride Square into a steaming dance party with some of Sweden's hottest singers, dancers and DJs on stage.

Rumour has it you can expect both well-known and up-and-coming guest stars throughout the evening.

THE BEST LGBT CHILDREN'S BOOK

Who wrote the best children's book featuring LGBT characters? The jury consists of children's book author and screenwriter Kim Fupz Aakeson, illustrator and children's book author Cato Thau-Jensen and editor at Gyldendal Sanne Paustian Billesbølle. The jury will announce the winner of Grundtvigsk Forum's children's literature contest, which was announced earlier this year, and which is aimed at 3-6-year-olds. The only requirement to enter the competition was that the story must feature one or more LGBT people. Thus, the competition focussed on the lack of LGBT inclusive literature for children. During the award ceremony, we will be asking 'What is good children's literature?' Author and former chairperson of Dansk Lærereforening Jens Raahauge, literary critic for Information Marianne Eskebæk Larsen and Kim Fupz Aakeson will each give a short presentation. We'll celebrate the announcement of the winner with a glass of champagne. Free admission, but registration is necessary by 7th August at www.grundtvig.dk.

HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRAM

14:00 - 14:45

LARM FOR LGBT RIGHTS

In collaboration with LGBT+ Youth and Sabaah, Ungdomsbyen (Youth City) and LGBT Denmark offer a new training package: LARM for LGBT Rights. LARM is short for Equality (Ligestilling), Recognition (Anerkendelse), Rights (Rettigheder) and Citizenship (Medborgerskab), and this is what we want students to reflect on to learn to include everyone, including LGBTIA, brown people and Muslims. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

14:00 - 14:45

LGBTQ ASSOCIATIONS: CAN WE UNITE DIVERSITY?

Based on the ethnographic material that he has collected for Dansk Folkekemindesamling, Ole Møller Markussen will give a presentation about the results and invite questions from the audience. Language: Danish.

Location: Mamma's, Regnbuepladsen 3-5, 1550 Copenhagen

14:00 - 14:45

LEGAL SEX CHANGE FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Transgender children and young people often experience awkward and humiliating situations because their social security number doesn't reflect their gender expression. The possibility of legal sex change would mean a recognition of transgender children and young people's identity and give them more freedom to live as the gender that corresponds to their identity, thus giving them a better life. Language: Danish

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

15:00 - 15:45

BEST PRACTICE IN HEALTH CARE FOR TRANS PERSONS

In a conversation with Astrid Højgaard from Centre for Gender Identity, Aalborg University Hospital, we ask about her experiences starting the country's newest treatment centre for transgender persons. What kind of considerations were made and how have they manifested? What has worked and what hasn't? We will discuss a 'best practice' based on recognition and inclusivity. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

15:00 - 15:45

EVERYDAY LIFE FOR TRANSGENDER CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

What is life like in school or kindergarten and spare time for transgender children and young people? How do we ensure a life with acceptance and recognition for transgender children and young people? How do you change your name? What is a binder? Where do you find likeminded people?

Based on their own experiences, the panel will suggest answers and possible solutions for transgender children and young people. Language: Danish.

Location: Mamma's, Regnbuepladsen 3-5, 1550 Copenhagen

15:00 - 15:45

INVISIBLE DISCRIMINATION IN THE WORKPLACE

LGBT+ people experience great challenges in the work force. The Union PROSA undertook a norm critical investigation that shows what invisible discrimination mechanisms are at play in the workplace. Do we need a three-part agreement for LGBT+ people? Why does no one demand better conditions for LGBT+ people in contractual negotiations? Language: Danish.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

16:00 - 16:45

INCLUSIVE ACTIVISM IN PRIDE

While enhanced social justice and human rights have been experienced by LGBTQI communities in some countries, rights are being eroded in others. This presentation will discuss inclusion of LGBTQI human rights issues and question how Pride organisations can utilise inclusive strategies to disrupt the spread of anti-LGBTQI sentiment. Language: English

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

16:00 - 16:45

POLITICAL HEALTH DEBATE

We have invited a number of politicians to discuss LGBTQ health. Health studies show that LGBTQ people are left behind, are often met with prejudice and do not always have full autonomy over their bodies. What will the politicians do to change this? What are the priorities and where do we need to make changes? Language: Danish.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

16:00 - 16:45

SHAME ON YOU(R POEM)

People all over the world experience shame. Many LGBT+ people experience shame based on their sexuality or gender identity/ expression. Shame affects us, impairs us and for some, it is a lifelong companion. We have asked three writers to relate to 'shame' in their own literature. Language: Danish.

Location: Mojo Blues Bar, Løngangstræde 21 C, 1468 Copenhagen

17:00 - 17:30

FRIENDSHIP DATING

Are you looking for new acquaintances and potential friends in the LGBTQ community? Then join Friendship Dating in Huset's courtyard where we will facilitate different conversations to give you the opportunity to expand your network. Who knows? Maybe you'll meet people you can relate to or who can expand your horizons? Language: English.

Location: Huset-KBH (the courtyard), Rådhusstræde 13, 1466 Copenhagen

17:00 - 17:45

MINORITY STRESS

LGBTQ+ people experience more discrimination and stigma than the rest of the population resulting in many not seeking help. LGBTQ+ people are commonly misunderstood and have resigned to explain their "different" lifestyle. These experiences of stigma are referred to as "minority stress". Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

17:00 - 17:45

THE 'TWO SEXES' IN THE HEALTH CARE SECTOR: DOCTOR CONSULTATION

Meet norm critical doctors and health staff who work with the rainbow community's issues and are open to gender diversity regarding their patients. With them, we will look at the prejudices their patients have and what barriers they meet when they, as health care professionals, escalate cases in the health sector. Language: Danish.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

17:00 - 17:45

KILLJOY

We will examine the term killjoy and what it means. We will look at how to be a killjoy in practical terms. What happens when you point out heteronormativity, transphobia or racism at a family dinner, at work, or online? Language: Danish.

Location: Mojo Blues Bar, Løngangstræde 21C, 1468 Copenhagen

17:00 - 18:30

PARENTS OF TRANSGENDER CHILDREN

As a trans person, it can be difficult to come out to your parent(s). Parents want the best for their children, and this can cause many concerns and questions. Often, parents don't have anyone other than the child to share their thoughts with. At this event, a panel of parents of transgender children talk and answer questions. Language: Danish.

BIERASURE

Bisexuals and pansexuals are often forgotten in our debates, policies and ways of speaking. Why? How do we change this? We've gathered a panel of people who will talk about this. The debate is organised with the bi-political committee in LGBT Denmark. Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

18:00 - 18:45

IS THE GENDER AND QUEER DISCOURSE TOO ACADEMIC?

When talking about gender, a critique is often that the conversation is too academic. Thus, it is difficult for some people to gain acceptance if their gender is not within the binary understanding. For those that are not academic, these discussions can often go over their heads. This panel will pull the gender debate out of academia. Language: Danish.

Location: Mojo Blues Bar, Løngangstræde 21C, 1468 Copenhagen

UNDER THE RAINBOW 2019

Welcome to the big concert night of Pride Week where we bring fantastic live music into the spotlight in every colour of the rainbow and fill up Pride Stage with both up-and-coming as well as widely known artists.

We are more than proud to present as this year's main draw one of Denmark's very best and finest singer-songwriters: Tina Dickow (known outside of Denmark as Tina Dico). With hits such as Nobody's Man, Open Wide, You Wanna Teach Me to Dance and Warm Sand she has established herself as one of the big names in Danish music, and Tina Dickow's shining career has seen her being honoured with several well-deserved GAFFA awards and Danish Music Awards.

Tina Dickow takes the stage at around 9 pm, preceded by artists such as Lydmor, Neigh and Danish X Factor winner Kristian Kjærlund who have all come to Copenhagen Pride to serve you amazing music and lots of love. Hosting the show is Danish actress and model May Simón Lifschitz.

PREP – WHO WILL PAY THE PRICE?

Danish Regions' Health Committee announced that PrEP would be available in 2019 as a trial. The debate around PrEP is characterised by moral and economical assessments, so we're asking the questions: Who will pay? What can we learn from leading countries? What should a permanent PrEP scheme look like? And what does it mean to be part of a 'risk group'? Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

14:00 - 14:30

INFORMATION ABOUT LGBT+

Based on new teaching material about the challenges that LGBT+ people face, we will discuss how to inform citizens about the conditions of LGBT+ people. How do we ensure understanding and knowledge about LGBT+ people in primary and secondary school, high schools and higher education? Language: Danish.

Location: Hovedkassen, Copenhagen City Hall

14:00 - 14:45

HAS THE SILVER SCREEN GOTTEN A RAINBOW FILTER?

When streaming services have started tagging LGBT, does that mean that there is now more content featuring LGBTQ representation? Are some groups within the acronym represented more often than others are and are some consistently excluded? What kind of reality do movies show and who gets casted? Language: English.

Location: Mamma's, Regnbuepladsen 3-5, 1550 Copenhagen

15:00 - 15:45

FROM FETISH TO MAINSTREAM – PORN IN A RAINBOW PERSPECTIVE

After years of being fetishized, LGBTQ people have started being positively included in mainstream porn. What does this mainstreaming of LGBTQ people's sexuality and bodies mean combined with the increased accessibility of porn that reflects us? Can it be liberating and lead to a better self image? Language: Danish.

Location: Debate Tent on the Rainbow Square

15:00 - 15:45

DO WE EVEN HAVE THE RIGHT TO HAVE CHILDREN?

DRAG NIGHT 2019

Copenhagen Pride's Drag Night is one of the biggest drag shows in the world. Yes, Henny... in the WORLD!!! The show itself is 4 hours long and there is around 15.000 people in the audience. Nobody does it bigger or better!

This year we've invited VIVACIOUS from RuPaul's Drag Race Season 6 to headline our show and serve up some old school drag. Yes! Mother has arrived - and we are bursting with excitement. We've also invited drag kings Georgeous Michael and Zayn Phallic and almost 30 of the finest Danish drag performers, dancers and extras so there will be something for everyone. As always Drag Night is hosted by one of the biggest queens in Denmark, the beautiful, sassy and ever so talented Megan Moore.
